Sometimes Joy Needs a Little Help

Because joy is resistance.

Joy is how we carve a place for ourselves.

Joy is where we tell our own stories.
Joy is resistance

Joy is strength

Joy = fuck queerphobia
Joy = fuck transphobia

Sometimes Joy Finds You

You might be sitting under a tree on a beautiful day and simply feel joyous.

That's lovely, and that should be celebrated.
We love it when that happens.

Sometimes we need to cultivate a space for joy.

We need to say this is where joy is.

This is where no one can take joy from me.

This is where I will focus.

This is where I will let joy find me.
